

KILLRUDDERY

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Please read through our Terms & Conditions carefully before purchasing or renewing your annual Membership.

MEMBERSHIP CARDS: VERY IMPORTANT!

- To purchase a Killruddery Membership and Membership Card, you must be photographed for identification. Your image will be attached to your Membership. You must bring your Membership Card with you when you wish to gain access to the Gardens. Without your card you (and your guests) will have to pay full entry price.
- Your Membership Card validates unlimited admission to our Gardens during open season from the day of purchase. You will receive a 'Soon To Expire' email or letter from us to remind you to renew your Membership when the time comes!
- We have three Membership packages: Gold Finch, Silver Fir or Copper Beech. Gold Finch costs €100 and allows a Member to invite up to 5 guests per visit. Silver Fir costs €80 and allows a Member to invite up to 3 guests per visit. Copper Beech costs €60 and allows a Member to invite up to 1 guest per visit. Please note - a guest is both an adult or child over 4 years old. Gardens admission tickets: Adult - €8.50 | 12-18 yrs - €7.50 | 4-12 yrs - €3.00 | Under 4 yrs - FREE.
- Your Membership Card can be held by a household, with two card holder names and one address on the Membership. Proof of address is required for both named persons.
- Membership Cards are non-transferable and the Member (card holder/s) must be present at all times to accompany guests into the Gardens or on the Farm roads.
- Loss of card: a charge of €10 is applicable for the issue of replacement cards within your 12 month Membership - so please take care of your card. The same charge applies if you wish to have the details on the card changed from what was originally on your application form.
- Your Killruddery Membership can be renewed annually - you will not require a new Membership Card each year.

ACCESS & OPENING TIMES:

- The Gardens are open 01 May to 30 Sept: 09:30 - 18:00 (last entries 5pm). April & October: 09:30 - 17:00 The Gardens will now be closed each Monday throughout the Season (with the exception of Bank Holiday Mondays)

- Dogs may not be brought into the Gardens but may be walked on a lead on the Farm roads. Only guide dogs may visit the House and Gardens.
- No vehicles are allowed beyond the designated car parks.
- No adult bicycles permitted beyond the car parks.
- No access into the Gardens other than by the official Gardens Entrance.
- Special events taking place throughout the year may require closing access to some or all of the Gardens and/or the Farm. Please check our website for latest information or follow us on social media.
- Special events at Killruddery may carry their own admission charge. Where possible, members are eligible for discounted House tours. Please refer to our website or make an enquiry.
- The management reserve the right to refuse entry.

ETIQUETTE: ALSO IMPORTANT!

- Children must be supervised at all times. We work tirelessly to protect and nurture our Gardens, so please enjoy our landscapes mindfully.
- Please do not pick flowers, shrubs or take cuttings.
- Please observe the notices within our Gardens and on the Farm.
- Picnics are only allowed in our Picnic & Play area in the Walled Garden, the Wilderness Village & Bowling Green. We regret picnics are not allowed anywhere else - except on certain event days in the Gardens.
- Killruddery is a working farm so we ask all visitors to take appropriate precautions to ensure their own safety and the safety of others. Do not approach farm machinery, buildings and fields and keep to the roads on the Farm.
- Animals on the Farm are not pets so please don't pet them or feed them! Do not open closed gates.
- Killruddery does not accept liability for any loss or injury whilst on the estate.
- Beware there are deep water features in our Gardens and children must be supervised at all times.

MANY THANKS FOR READING
